TELEX E-5 and E-10

INDUSTRY

LUBRICANTS

Description

They are light and very refined mineral oils containing additives which enhance protection against corrosion and ageing.

Recommended uses

They are especially recommended for hydraulic circuits and the lubrication of highly revolutionary mechanisms.

Properties

- Great resistance to ageing.
- Low freezing point.
- Great capacity for forming lubricant film.
- Resistance to oxidation and sludge formation.

Quality level

- DIN-51524 Part 1 HL.
- AFNOR NF E 48-603 HL.
- ISO 6743/4 HL.

Hazard identification

Telex E-5 is classified as harmful. It may cause lung damage if ingested. Telex E-10 is not classified as toxic or dangerous according to current legislation.

Handling

Wear suitable protective clothing, PVC gloves and safety goggles or visors to avoid splashes. Do not smoke, drink, or eat while handling the product.

Health and Safety Hazards

Inhalation: Given that it is not a particularly volatile product, the risk of inhalation is minimal.
Ingestion: Do not induce vomiting. Flush the mouth with water. Do not give anything by mouth to an unconscious or convulsing person. Request immediate medical assistance.
Contact with the Skin/ Eyes: Wash with plenty of water and soap. In case of contact with the eyes, flush with plenty of water for at least 15 minutes. Request medical assistance.
General measures: Seek medical advice.

Fire-fighting measures

No special measures required.
Fire-extinguishing measures: Foams, dry chemicals, CO2, water spray. Do not apply the jet of water directly as this could cause the product to disperse.

Environmental precautions

Danger of physical pollution if spilt (water, coastlines, soil, etc.) due to its floatability and oily consistency that may harm flora and fauna on contact. Avoid material getting into water outlets.
Decontamination and cleaning: Treat like an accidental oil spill. Prevent dispersion using mechanical barriers and remove by physical or chemical means.

A safety information file is available on request.
